Electric Co-ops Empower Youth Through Safety Poster Contest

Electric cooperatives are committed to supporting the communities they serve – and one way they do this is through the annual Safety Coloring Poster Contest. Since its start in 1984, this contest has promoted electrical safety and awareness among youth, targeting second, third, and fourth graders in cooperative service areas across New Mexico.

Organized in partnership with the New Mexico Marketing & Member Services Association, the contest distributes more than 15,000 posters statewide each year. Individual cooperatives select local winners who then advance to the statewide competition, where first, second, and third place prizes are awarded.

This year, Sierra Electric proudly had 142 students participate in this creative and educational initiative!

Cinco de Mayo Celebration at Arrey Elementary

Sierra Electric Cooperative was proud to join Arrey Elementary's Cinco de Mayo celebration on May 2, 2025. Alongside local law enforcement, fire departments, State Parks Rangers, and other organizations, who helped students learn about the role each group plays in the community. Students enjoyed visiting each booth, collecting goodies, and gaining valuable insights!
